WHO WE ARE

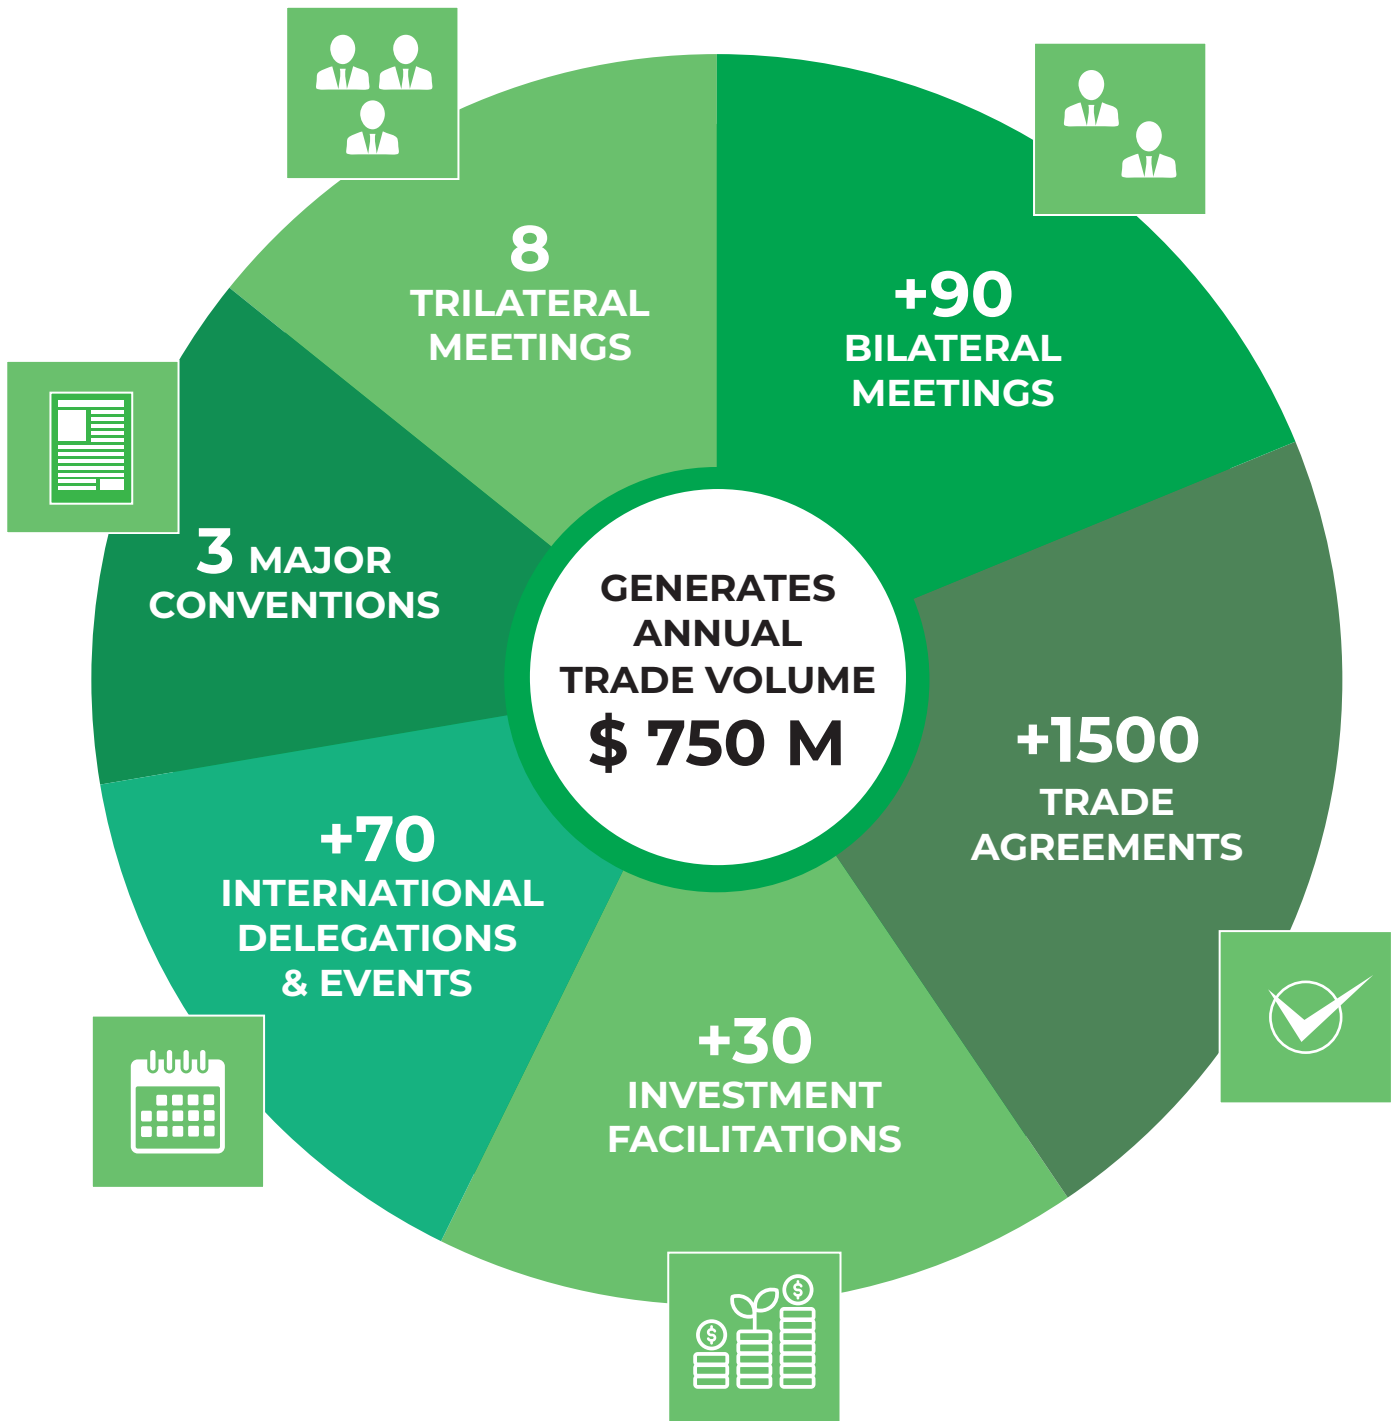

Turkish African Business Association (TABA) is a platform of development, initiation, cooperation and collaboration, founded in 2010 to contribute to the social, political, economic, scientific, commercial and technological development of Türkiye and Africa.

Headquartered in Istanbul, TABA has regional offices in Nigeria, Cameroon and Mauritania, and representatives in Morocco, Algeria, Senegal, Guinea, Ghana, Kenya, Uganda, South Sudan, Ethiopia, Sudan and Libya.

WHO WE ARE

Turkish African Business Association (TABA) is an organization that aims to strengthen business bridges between Turkey and Africa. Since 2010, TABA has coordinated;

WHY AFRICA

AFRICA HAS THE YOUNGEST POPULATION IN THE WORLD,

with 70% of sub-Saharan Africa under the age of 30. Such a high number of young people is an opportunity for the continent's economic growth

WHAT AFRICA OFFERS

Construction Sector

Currently about 600 projects in progress worth $500B in Africa

FMCG and Retail Sector

Consumer market will reach $2T volume across Africa in 2025

African consumer expenditure in major retail subsectors, 2011 to 2016 :

WHAT AFRICA OFFERS

Textile Sector

Textile and clothing export to Sub-Saharan Africa rose from $ 19,8 B in 2016 to $ 27,9 B in 2021.

Sub-Saharan Africa's total trade statistics for textile & clothing (annual)

Health Sector

UNECA reported that health business opportunities in Africa will be worth as much as $259 billion by 2030.

The report finds considerable demand for investment over the next decade, including over half a million additional hospital beds.

WHAT AFRICA OFFERS

Furniture Sector

Africa imports 40% of its total furniture consumption.
Total furniture imports amounted to $3,6B in 2013. This rose to $5B in 2018.

2013

2018

2022

Furniture imports by area

Total furniture imports into Africa (both from other African countries and other areas of the world) exceeds $3B

Corresponding to about 2% of world imports as estimated by CSIL.

Agriculture Sector

More than 60 percent of the population of sub-Saharan Africa is smallholder farmers, and about 23 percent of sub-Saharan Africa's GDP comes from agriculture. Yet, Africa's full agricultural potential remains untapped.

Rising urbanization and the growth of urban middle-class consumers in Africa could lead to $645 Billion in growth in consumer spending between 2015 and 2025 of that growth, $167 billion could be in food and beverages; a majority of that would come from sub-Saharan African countries.

Currently, sub-Saharan Africa imports $15 billion in food crops (grains, edible oils, and sugar), primarily from regions in Asia and South America.

WHAT AFRICA OFFERS

Education Sector

Students from Sub-Saharan Africa are enrolling in big numbers, and the competition is increasing, with indicators predicting that the region's 430,000 outward mobile students will double in the next decade.

The Africa e-learning market size reached US$ 2.8 Billion in 2022. In short term, total market value is expected to reach $5.2 Billion by 2028.

IT Sector

E-government systems and internet access will significantly increase the consumption rates of African nations.

In 2022, 18 data centers were built in Africa. However, with the colocation market growing and the demand for cloud and internet-based services from businesses and consumers rising, investment in this area is expected to rise up to $6 billion.

By 2030, total market value of the IT sector is expected to pass $100 billion.

WHAT AFRICA OFFERS

Automotive & Spare Parts Sector

The automotive industry in the African continent in 2021 was valued at US$30.44 billion and predicted to grow to US$ 42 billion by 2027.

South Africa and Morocco were the two largest exporters accounting for over 80% of exports. But the continent as a whole is a major net importer of vehicles and parts.

US$4.5 billion or about 15% of total trade in the automotive industry was destined for other African countries (termed as intra-Africa trade).

WHAT AFRICA OFFERS

Machinery Sector

Construction machinery

Governments, development authorities and even companies have begun investing in infrastructure development projects in several African countries. Moreover, many African governments have invested heavily in irrigation and mining projects across the continent. All these factors have contributed immensely to the increased use of construction machinery.

The construction machinery industry in the African market is worth $900 million and immensely increasing.

Earth moving machinery accounted for the highest market share in 2020. Increasing demand for large and mini excavators, backhoe loaders, and such other heavy construction equipment from developing countries is driving the market growth.

Among excavators, loaders, and other such earth moving machinery segments, excavator is anticipated to capture highest market share by 2025. Demand for loaders is expected to boost owing to increased requirement from Chinese and African markets. Demand for other earth moving equipment such as dozers are anticipated to grow at very high pace, owing to high demand from mining sector in Africa.

WHAT AFRICA OFFERS

Manufacturing equipments

African manufacturing equipment market was valued at $7.21 billion in 2020 and is expected to grow at a CAGR of 4.3% in the next 3 years. Increasing demand for manufactured goods in Africa is driving the growth of this sector.

Agriculture machinery

The African agricultural machinery market is expected to reach $7.94 billion value by 2027. Increasing demand for food in Africa is driving the growth of this sector.

Energy & power equipments

The energy and power equipment sector in Africa is also growing, driven by the need for reliable and affordable energy.

The market was valued at $22.6 billion in 2020 and is expected to reach $34.1 billion by 2027.

WHY ISTANBUL

Istanbul is a dynamic mega-city, operating as a :

Manufacturing Capital
